For purposes of imposing either an academic program moratorium or academic program termination, Dawson Community College will observe Board of Regents' Policy 303.4.

An academic program moratorium: the academic program remains in the catalog and on the Board of Regents' list of approved programs, but the institution has temporarily suspended admission to the program.

An academic program termination: the academic program has been (or will be) withdrawn from the catalog and no students will be admitted to the program.
