

Dawson Basketball Officiating Camp

Dawson Community College - Glendive, Montana

June 19-21, 2020

This basketball officiating camp, sponsored by Dawson Community College, is for current youth league, high school, and college officials and for those looking to get started in officiating high school and college basketball games across Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Wyoming. Participants will officiate high school games and receive valuable evaluation from certified referees in addition to excellent education on officiating topics during daily classroom educational sessions.

Dawson Basketball Officiating Camp is approved through the MHSAA and NDHSAA to count as 2 study club credits. Montana educators will be able to receive renewal units.

"I was very impressed with how much time and effort they put into trying to help us get better. I felt I received some honest and valuable insight into what I need to become a better official. It was money well spent, and I hope I can make it back this summer." -Past Camp Participant

About the Instructors

Mike Fischer officiated high school basketball for 32 years and at the college level doing men's and women's games for 12 years. He officiated two NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Tournaments. He also spent 11 years as a Big Sky Conference Men's Basketball Observer. For the past 12 years, he has been the Supervisor of officials for the Frontier Conference and is on staff at several high level officiating teaching camps across the country.

Bo J. Scott's basketball officiating experience includes five years in NAIA Divisions I and II and NCAA Division II and two years in NCAA Division I. He has taken part in a number of officiating camps, both as a camper and a clinician. He is also the current Secretary/Treasurer for the Black Eagle Basketball Officials Association Board.

Ray Ames currently works within the Western Officiating Consortium, which covers games within the Big Sky, Big West, Pac 12, Mountain West, WAC, and WCC conferences. He also currently officiates in the GNAC Conference (NCAA Division II), Frontier Conference (NAIA Division I), and Montana Officials Association. Ray is also a current Black Eagle Basketball Officials Association Board Member.
